

MARYLAND HIGHER EDUCATION COMMISSION MOVES TO BALTIMORE

Annapolis, MD – The Maryland Higher Education Commission is pleased to announce that the commission will be moving its offices to 6 N. Liberty Street, Baltimore, MD, effective November 14, 2011. Offices will close on November 10, 2011, and reopen on November 14, 2011.

The relocation from Annapolis to Baltimore, in the same building as the Maryland State Department of Education, the Nancy S. Grasmick Education Building, will foster the collaboration necessary for a successful P-20 system in the state.

Colleges, universities, and private career school administrators and admissions staff, as well as the general public can contact the commission by:
